Arcanum 13: Immortality
Immortality
Physical Death

Three things go to the grave:
• The physical body
• The vital body
• The personality

What continues:
• The Essence
• The pluralized ego
Death and the Three Brains

People die in thirds according to how one uses vital values (Bobbin-Kandelnosta) in the three brains.

Death in either of the three brains results in:

- Intellectual Brain—neurasthenia, idiocy, schizophrenia, madness, or mania.
- Emotional Brain—depression, bi-polar disorder, psychopathic emotions, nervousness, and cardiac disease.
- Motor-Instinctive-Sexual Brain—paralysis, muscle sicknesses, paraplegia, and joint/spine/knee problems.
Voluntary Death
Numerous are these people who assume that through good intentions it is possible to attain sanctity. Obviously, as long as one does not work intensely on those “I’s” that we carry within our interior, they will continue to exist beneath the depth of our godly appearance and our upright conduct.

The time has come for us to know that we are perverse ones disguised with the robe of sanctity: wolves in sheepskin, cannibals dressed in gentlemen’s clothing, executioners hidden behind the sacred sign of the cross, etc.

As majestic as we may seem inside our temples or inside our classrooms of light and harmony, as serene and sweet as we may seem to our fellowmen, as reverent and humble as we may appear, the abominations of hell and all the monstrosities of the wars continue to exist at the bottom of our psyche.

In revolutionary psychology, the necessity of a radical transformation is evident to us and this is only possible by declaring on oneself a merciless and cruel war to the death.

Indeed, all of us are worthless, each one of us is the disgrace, the abomination of the earth.

Fortunately, John the Baptist taught us the secret way: to die in oneself through psychological decapitation.

Death and the Gospel of Judas

“The Gospel of Judas is related with the dissolution of the ego. The cosmic drama of Christ would be impossible to represent without the role of Judas; this apostle is then the most exalted adept, the most elevated amongst all of the apostles of the Christ Jesus.”
— Samael Aun Weor (1973)

Resurrection
Psalm 119

97. Oh how I love your law; it is my meditation all day.
98. You make me wiser than my enemies by your commands; for they are forever mine.
99. I have more wisdom than all my teachers; for your testimonies are a meditation to me.
100. I understand more than the aged; for I keep your precepts.
101. I have kept my feet for every evil way, to keep your word.
102. I turned not from your judgments, for you have taught me.
103. How sweet are your words to my palate! More than honey to my mouth!
104. By your precepts I know; so then I hate every false way.

“The words of a (solar) man’s mouth are as deep waters, and the wellspring of wisdom as a flowing brook.” —Proverbs 18:4

“It is He who sends forth the winds as harbingers of His mercy. When they bear rain-laden clouds, We drive them toward a dead land and send down water on it, and with it We bring forth all kinds of crops. Thus shall We raise the dead; maybe you will take admonition.” —Qur’an 7:57
